The weather conditions were perfect, in a twelve knot southwester, whether close hauled in the heat-down the bay on a broad reach with the wind abeam, or running free under spinnaker, she rendered a splendid account of herself, and gave abundant proofs of being a formidable candidate in the trials for the shoice of a cup defender.

Her performance demonstrated that, tespite the apprehension that she would be stiff, she heeled readily and easily to her salling lines in a very moderate breeze. Vernon Hunt, a colored farmer from Hanover county, got into serious trouble in Manchester systemay morning. He was peddling farm produce from a eart. When he reached the residence of Mrs. Lacy, on Foirth Street, that lady purchased some things, and gave him a $10 bill. He had no change, but took the money, and said he would go get it changed and return. He was a long time coming back and Mrs. Lacy made complaint. The negro was arrested. He protested that he did not intend to take the money, but had trouble in getting the change. He will remain in the station-house until to-morrow, when Mayor Maurice will hear the story.

Another ten-dollar episode occured last night. Mr. George Blankenship, living in Swansboro, lay down on a lounge to sleep. When he awoke he made the announcement that some one had robbed him of $10, which he had in his pocket when he went to sleep. He said that the only man in his room was a friend of his. He walked down the sireet with him and when they came to a bar, he suggested that they go in and take a drink out of that ten.

"You know what ten." I mean the ten."You know what ten." I mean the ten."

"What ten?" asked his friend.
"You know what ten. I mean the ten you have of mine," replied Blankenship.
"I don't know anything about it and don't know what you are talking about," said the friend gave Blankenship a punch in the face.

Then Blankenship attempted to get a warrant on the charge of taking the ten dollars, and another on the charge of hitting. One of the alleged offenses was committed in the county and the other in the city and one or both may be secured to-day.

marriage ceremony will take place Wed-nesday evening, when Miss Lillie Kesler, daughter of Mr. William Kesler, of that giy, will become his bride. This announcement will come as a surprise to the many friends of Mr. Smith, who is a well-known business-man, of No. 923 Hull Street, and also a member of the Fire Department. Mr. Walter Smith, of the Fire Department, is his son.

One of the most popular and prosperous bazaars ever given in Manchester came to a close at Leader Hall last night. For a full week the bazaar ran, and as a result the beneficiaries, Lily Council Daughters of Liberty, and the Olympia Club, will reap a good harvest.

The entertainment last night was very amusing and entertaining. Messrs. Hart, Jones, Williamson and Colonel Billy Allen amused, and Miss Gertrude Allen sang several coon songs as only she can.

At the close of the entertainment the left-over articles were auctioned off, and the prize winners were announced as follows:

Gold watch (large), Miss Sallie Tillery; amp. Miss Etta Gill; small watch, Miss of Forest Hill.

MIDNIGHT ROW.

The firing of a pistol at Fourteenth and Hull Streets about midnight caused something of a sensation, and a crowd gathered. The cause of it was a row that had been going on between William criffith and three young men named Franklin, Connaily and Knowles. Griffith said he was being beaten by the others, and fired in self-protection.

No one was hurt by the shots, and Policeman Wright arrested Griffith and carried him to the station house for a hearing to-morrow.

ODD-FILLOWS CELEBRATION.

The Odd-Fellows of Manchester will celebrate the eighty-fourth anniversary of the order at Bainbridge-Street Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Jail's Condition.

Editor of The Times Dispatch.
Deer Sir.—Having read so much about the New City Jail both pro and con, we deem it but right and proper, and in justice to Sergeant Smith and the officers at the Jail, to say that we the undersigned preachers and Christian workers have visited the Jail and held scruces there very often, and the sergeant and his men are always polity and acommedating, giving us ald and every facility in their power. We are permitted to go to all the departments, and have found them as clean and neat as they could well be, or any one expect to see under such circumstances.

Respectfully.
